

Continued Professional Development Training

February 2007	City & Guilds Web Design
April 2006	Arts Award Adviser training. Qualified to act as an adviser to young people for Arts Award Bronze & Silver
October 2005	The Hundred Languages of Children; conference & seminars about the Reggio Emilia approach to early years childcare and education.
May 2005	Workshops for Dancers and Filmmakers; Sale Waterside Arts Centre; Working with contemporary dancers to investigate movement and the use of the camera.
May – Sept 2004	Shadowing Artist, Beginning with C, a cancer narrative project, Halton Council Learning from a textile artist & a photographer about approaches to a large project and also from the co-ordinator about planning & evaluation
April – May 2004	Continued Professional Development for Artists, Salford University Applying for exhibitions; facilitating workshops; contract law & IPR, budgeting etc.
Oct – Nov 2003	Arts for Health Training, Halton Borough Council Working with community groups, Drugs awareness, groups with terminal illness, disability awareness.

---

Education & Qualifications

2000 – 2003	BA(hons) Fine Art, (First Class), Liverpool John Moores University
1999 – 2000	BTEC Diploma Foundation Studies in Art and Design, (Distinction), Warrington Collegiate Institute
1997 – 1999	A' Levels, Geography (A), Art (B), Environmental Science (B), General Studies (B), French (C), Widnes Sixth Form College
1992 – 1997	10 GCSEs, A-C, Fairfield High School, Widnes

Claire Weetman

Visual Artist

07714 766 132
claireweetman@hotmail.com
www.claireweetman.co.uk

Employment

- June 2003 – present      Freelance visual artist
Working with school and community groups of all ages, to produce artworks in various media including drawing, painting and 3D work, whilst pursuing personal practice.
- Sept 2004 – March 2007      Project Co-ordinator
'Time for Me', Arts and Health project
Halton Borough Council
Duties include contracting artists, arranging transport for participants, liaising with Health and Arts professionals and attending arts sessions.
- June – September 2006      Project Co-ordinator
Tower Hill Health Centre Public Art Project
Knowsley Arts Team/ Knowsley PCT
Co-ordinating the production of three pieces of temporary public art work with the community around the health centre.
- April 2003 – present      Member of 'Markmakers', visual arts collective based in Halton. Currently in post as Secretary.
- June 2004 – present      Tate Liverpool
Information Assistant
Welcoming visitors to the gallery and providing them with information about the works on display, whilst ensuring the safety and security of works of art (casual basis).

---

Additional Information

Full Clean Driving Licence

Enhanced CRB disclosure

References available on request